Defendants.)

This matter is before the court on the defendant, Adrionna Leeper's Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [106]. Counsel needs additional time to confer with client, conduct plea negotiations, and/or prepare for trial. Counsel for the co-defendants indicate they do not object to the continuance. For good cause shown,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Continue Trial [106] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial, for all defendants, now set for November 28, 2022, is continued to February 28, 2023.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and February 28, 2023, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(6), (7)(A) & (B)(iv).
3. A party may object to this order by filing an "Objection to Magistrate Judge's Order" no later than November 23, 2022. The objecting party must comply with all requirements of NECrimR 59.2.

DATED: November 18, 2022.
